

PASSAIC VALLEY REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL

For Immediate Posting

Teacher of Biology
Full-time, Tenure-track

JOB DESCRIPTION

PVRHS is seeking a passionate and dedicated High School Biology Teacher to join our science faculty. The ideal candidate will inspire a love for biology in students, foster critical thinking, and engage students in hands-on and inquiry-based learning. This role is responsible for delivering a rigorous biology curriculum that covers topics from cell biology to ecosystems, preparing students for college-level science courses, and promoting scientific literacy.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Hold a New Jersey instructional certificate in the appropriate field in accordance with the requirements of N.J.S.A. 18A:27.1 et seq., and N.J.A.C. Title 6 Chapter 11 with appropriate subject area endorsement(s) for the position held (N.J.A.C. 6:11-6.1, 6.2, or 8.1 et seq.);
- Design and implement engaging biology lessons aligned with state standards. Incorporate a variety of instructional strategies to meet diverse learning needs.
- Plan and conduct safe and effective lab activities that reinforce theoretical knowledge, promote practical skills, and encourage scientific inquiry.
- Develop and administer formative and summative assessments to evaluate student progress and understanding, providing constructive feedback to support learning goals.
- Establish and maintain a positive, productive classroom environment that fosters respect, curiosity, and accountability.
- Work with science department colleagues to ensure curriculum alignment, participate in professional learning communities, and stay current on best practices in science education.
- Maintain open communication with students, parents, and administration regarding student performance, classroom expectations, and educational goals.

TERMS OF EMPLOYMENT

Full-time, tenure-track position. Compensation on the teacher salary schedule commensurate with experience.
